Walk Summary:	This is a stroll along formed gravel roads, with little to no traffic. Meet at the letterboxes at corner of Holes and Mt Lookout road, where parking is available. We start off down a wide gravel road, passing a telecommunications tower, before that road soon becomes narrower. Passing through bushland and beside open paddocks, the undulating track meets Leytons Road. Here we turn left and begin the climb to the top of Leytons, where it meets Tower Road. There are a couple of particularly steep sections, but persevering will reward us with views from the top. We can look back towards Glenaladale and beyond, and cast our gaze out to the Gippsland Lakes and further. This could be a lovely spot for lunch. We then retrace our steps back to the car. Whilst not a particularly long walk, it does have a bit of elevation. http://hiiker.app/maps/planned-trails/tower-to-tower--120390 Please email me to list yourself for the hike.
